

BPE: Becoming a part of Europe

How youth work can support young migrants, refugees and asylum seekers

code 580420- EPP-1-2016-1-IT-EPPKA3-IPI-SOC-IN

Call for participants

The partnership, promoting the “BpE: Becoming a part of Europe” project, is organizing four International Thematic Working Groups, dealing with four different topics, with experts and practitioners to share their experience and competences with the aim to draft policy recommendations and draft learning needs analysis of youth workers, dealing with YMRA.<sup>1</sup>

International Thematic Working Groups – Topics

- A) Youth work role and competencies working with YMRA<sup>2</sup>, supporting their wellbeing and empowering them (Leading partner JINT – Belgium Flanders)
- B) Youth work role and competencies working with YMRA dealing with cross-sectoral co-operation (Leading partner - JUGEND für Europa - Germany)
- C) Youth work role and competencies working with Young Migrants, Refugees and Asylum seekers (YMRA), addressing gender equality and LGBTQ rights (Leading partner - Swedish Agency for Youth and Civil Society (MUCF) - Sweden)
- D) Youth work role and competences advocating for YMRA (Leading partner - European Union Programmes Agency - Malta)

Each of the above-mentioned topics will be investigated by one International Thematic Working Group, following some specific research questions that you can find in the document “BPE RESEARCH QUESTIONS”

Aims

The aim of the international Thematic Working Groups is to identify and draft policy recommendations and youth workers’ learning needs in the above-mentioned areas, taking into consideration:

- The practices collected within the BpE project in 2017;
- The research on “How youth work can support young migrants, refugees and asylum seekers”, elaborated within the BpE project in 2017;
- The existing recommendations at European and National level on youth work and young migrants;
- The existing experiences and literature, related to the above-mentioned topics.

Activities

The participants attending the International Thematic Working Groups are expected to contribute with their experiences and expertise, attend collective skype meetings, analyse background documents and practices, attend one meeting (2 working days) in presence, support the leading partner to draft policy recommendations and youth workers' learning needs analysis.

The draft thematic policy recommendations and the youth workers' learning needs analysis will be collected by ANG (Italian National Agency), who is in charge to elaborate the final reports.

The final reports will be shared among partners and presented during the Second Peer Learning Conference in Slovenia, in October 2018.

Expected outcomes

- Thematic practices analysis
- Feedback and analysis on examples of national and European policies in the specific field (documentation that will be shared also before the international meeting)
- National and European Policies analysis
- Thematic Policy recommendations draft report
- Youth workers' learning needs analysis

In addition to the above-mentioned aspects at European level the international thematic working groups should in particular:

- contribute to the dissemination of good practice in the above mentioned fields across Europe;
- encourage and support the creation of a European network of youth work stakeholders, caring particularly about YMRA;
- identify the opportunities to support the integration of young migrants, refugees and asylum seekers at European level;
- identify the gaps in supporting the integration of young migrants, refugees and asylum seekers;
- define the contribution of the Erasmus+ Youth in Action programme to further support the integration of young migrants, refugees and asylum seekers.

Participants profile

The target group for these International thematic working groups are experts and practitioners in one of the thematic working areas, who have knowledge and/or experiences to share and contribute actively in the production of the draft recommendations and analysis.
