I have good communicational skills. I prefer working in group and I like to split go the charges following equal competences. I have a high sense of individual responsibility .

Innovation and normalization are developed at the same level in the activities that I follow. It is not stopping me from taking new challenges, but it helps me to be very concrete in defining ideas. I use my background in facilitating my personal adaptation to new using also my instinct to avoid known obstacles, in order to be useful to the group I'm in.

technology and I use it as much as possible in my work. I use normally all the functions of grammes
